DETAILED ACTION

Repeated Rejections

1. The 35 U.S.C. rejection of claims 1, 2, 4, 18, 19 and 24 over De Van et al. in view of Brown in the office action dated October 26, 2005 is repeated for reasons previously of record as the arguments presented in the response dated January 12, 2006 are unpersuasive.

2. The 35 U.S.C. rejection of claims 3, 5 – 9, 20 – 23 and 25 – 27 over De Van et al. in view of Brown and Knox, III et al. in the office action dated October 26, 2005 is repeated for reasons previously of record as the arguments presented in the response dated January 12, 2006 are unpersuasive.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed January 12, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to Applicant's argument that there is nothing in De Van that shows a molded sealing media that is molded over and on the first side of the flange, De Van clearly states a sealing media molded over and onto the first side of the flange, which is disposed between the first side of the flange and the sealing media (Column 4, lines 4 – 5). Molded is defined as to give shape to or to form in a mold. The adhesive is given a shape when it is placed on the surface of the flange from the container that the adhesive is extruded.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
